THE SOLUTION: HOME REPAIR PROGRAMS

Whole-Home Repairs Program funding is helping Clinton County address longstanding housing challenges by supporting critical home repairs, expanding workforce training, and beginning to reduce a growing waitlist of residents in need.

Training programs offered through local institutions are helping to prepare workers to meet the region's increasing demand for home upgrades and essential repairs.

• $281,146 awarded through the Whole-Home Repairs Program

• $151,705 spent on home repairs, including electrical, structural, plumbing, and HVAC work so far.

• $30,620 spent on workforce development and training so far.

• 17 trainees enrolled in two workforce development cohorts launched through the PCT's Clean Energy Center.

• $26,278 was the average income of households served through the program.

All information is current as of May 2025. The data reflects a snapshot of the program's impact and does not capture its full scope, as funding is still being distributed and used.
